Tenant screening is the process of estimating potential renters for available apartment units. In general, the purpose of tenant screening is not to determine the eligibility of a tenant for a certain program, but to determine if the person is likely to be a good tenant. Widespread use of tenant screening services by property managers is a relatively recent practice.

The global Tenant Screening Services market size is projected to grow from US$ million in 2023 to US$ million in 2030; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of % from 2024 to 2030.

LPI (LP Information)' newest research report, the "Tenant Screening Services Industry Forecast" looks at past sales and reviews total world Tenant Screening Services sales in 2023, providing a comprehensive analysis by region and market sector of projected Tenant Screening Services sales for 2024 through 2030. This Insight Report evaluates the key market trends, drivers, and affecting factors shaping the global outlook for Tenant Screening Services and breaks down the forecast by Type, by Application, geography, and market size to highlight emerging pockets of opportunity. With a transparent methodology based on hundreds of bottom-up qualitative and quantitative market inputs, this study forecast offers a highly nuanced view of the current state and future trajectory in the global Tenant Screening Services.

Key driver of the global tenant screening services market is the rapidly growing rental housing market. Due to the Great Recession, rate of unemployment has been high and income has declined, constraining household budgets and making people shift toward living in rental houses. Young adults are the potential age group to rent a house due to changes in studies, jobs, etc. Renting has significantly flourished in regions, especially in central cities, where land prices are high and low-income households are concentrated.

This report presents a comprehensive overview, market shares, and growth opportunities of Tenant Screening Services market by product type, application, key players and key regions and countries.
