Abstracts

The global Watches and Jewelry market size is predicted to grow from US$ 184620 million in 2025 to US$ 241450 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.0% from 2026 to 2032.

Jewelry consists of decorative items worn for personal adornment, such as brooches, rings, necklaces, earrings, pendants, bracelets, and cufflinks. Jewellery may be attached to the body or the clothes. gold and gemstones has been the normal material for jewellery, but other materials such as glass, shells and other plant materials may be used.

A watch is a portable timepiece intended to be carried or worn by a person. A wristwatch is designed to be worn around the wrist, attached by a watch strap or other type of bracelet, including metal bands, leather straps or any other kind of bracelet. A pocket watch is designed for a person to carry in a pocket, often attached to a chain.

Increasing acceptance of jewelry by men is also driving the market. In particular, men's watches symbolize noble status, and many men are willing to collect luxury watches.

The launch of new designs and emerging fashion trends are attracting customers and manufacturers are taking advantage of the frequent changes in fashion to design unique products to attract customers.

Bridal jewelry also plays an important role in driving the market. High spending on weddings and celebrations in countries such as India is expected to have a positive impact on market growth.

As consumers' disposable income and spending power increase, jewelry such as gold and diamonds are used as collections.
