Abstracts

Dicamba is an herbicide that selectively kills broad-leaved weeds (as opposed to grass family plants). It is commonly used in conjunction with other herbicides, such as glyphosate, and according to the National Pesticide Information Center is currently found in about 1,100 herbicide products. It mimics natural plant hormones which cause abnormal growth and eventually death. Dicamba is sold under a variety of trade names including Banvel, Diablo, Oracle, and Vanquish, and is found in products used for both agricultural and home landscape applications. This report contains the World Wide Buyers analysis of Decamba. Currently There are approx 30 buyers World Wide for Decamba API Technical.

Note: Complete list of consumers would be provided in a separate MS-Excel file along with the report. Note- Buyers List will be available in Seperate Excel Sheet.
