Abstracts

The global catalysts industry experienced modest growth during 2007-2012. It is expected to retain similar growth over 2013-2018 led by continuous expansion of chemical and automobile sectors, the end-users of catalysts upon whose performance the industry growth is directly dependent. Industry revenue is forecast to reach an estimated $19.6 billion by 2018 with a CAGR of 2.4% over the next five years (2013-2018). Growing chemical and automobile industries are the major drivers of the industry. New products, emerging markets, and new technologies also stimulate industry growth.

Lucintel, a leading global management consulting and market research firm, has analyzed global catalysts industry and offers its findings in its comprehensive research report, "Global Catalysts Industry 2013-2018: Trend, Profit, and Forecast Analysis."

This report is geographically segmented into four regions: North America, Europe, Asia Pacific (APAC), and the Rest of the World (ROW). Europe dominates the industry, but North America and Europe is forecast to witness the highest growth over 2013-2018.

Lucintel has identified that the high level of investment involved, highly technical process involved, and technology norms are some of the major growth challenges. Increasing environmental preservation, growing demand for green chemistry, emerging demand for less toxic material, high energy cost, and increasing industrial application are the drivers providing the industry with competitive advantage.

This market report is an indispensable reference guide for materials suppliers, product manufacturers, investors, executives, distributors, and many more that operate in this market.

To make business, investment, and strategic decisions, you need timely, useful information and these market reports fulfill these core needs. This Lucintel research report provides excellent understanding of recent industry scope and overview, global macroeconomic overview, relative market attractiveness by region, annual industry trend, emerging trends, industry forecasts, Porter's Five Forces Analysis, product launches, and mergers and acquisitions that determine the regional and segment opportunities, competitive landscape, and profitability trend and analysis of the major industry players. The key insights sections portray beneficial information on an industry segment's growth and regional growth trends.

This comprehensive guide from Lucintel provides readers with valuable information and the tools needed to successfully drive critical business decisions with a thorough understanding of the market's potential. This report will save Lucintel clients hundreds of hours in personal research time on a global market and it offers significant benefits in expanding business opportunities throughout the global catalysts industry analysis. In a fast-paced ever-changing world, business leaders need every advantage available to them in a timely manner to drive change in the market and to stay ahead of their competition. This report provides business leaders with a keen advantage in this regard by making them aware of emerging trends and demand requirements on an annual basis.
