Abstracts

The global coal industry is expected to reach an estimated value of $1,037 billion by 2018. The major drivers of the coal industry are rising economic growth, increasing manufacturing base, and increasing demand for electricity. Availability of coal in abundance and relatively lower cost for coal generated power plants drives the demand for coal. APAC is likely to dominate this industry during forecast period.

Lucintel, a leading global management consulting and market research firm, has analyzed the global coal industry by region and has come up with a comprehensive research report, "Global Coal industry 2013-2018: Trend, Profit and Forecast Analysis." This report provides an analysis of the global coal industry including the market trend, company profiles, cost structure, growth opportunities, key drivers, and emerging trends of the market. The study also includes global coal industry trends and forecasts in terms of value ($B) and volume (Mt) through 2018 segmented by four regions such as North America, Europe, Asia Pacific, and Rest of World.

On the basis of its comprehensive research, Lucintel forecasts that coal industry will grow moderately during 2013-2018. Strong demand in the electric utilities sector considering an increase in population and growth in electric appliances is fostered by rise in living standards. Growing demand of energy from emerging economies such as China, India, and the Middle East countries is anticipated to boost the market. Upcoming technology such as Coal Liquefaction and Gasification Technology, Carbon Capture & Storage/Sequestration (CCS), and Efficiency improvement by Ultra Supercritical Pulverized Coal (USPC), and Integrated Gasification Combined Cycle (IGCC) are the emerging trends that are likely to boost the market.

This unique report from Lucintel will provide you with valuable information, insights, and tools needed to identify new growth opportunities and operate your business successfully in this market. This report will save hundreds of hours of your own personal research time and will significantly benefit you in expanding your business in this market. In today's stringent economy, you need every advantage that you can find.
