Plasma Powder Market Insights

Lucintel forecasts that dry will remain larger segment over the forecast period because of efficient binding, high protein content, and delivers a more palatable and digestible solution.

Within this market, pet food will remain the largest segment because these products are smaller, individual serving units thus make life easier for animals and their owners.

North America is expected to witness the highest growth over the forecast period due to the growing number of pet owners in the region, as well as, strong research and development capabilities.
