Third-Party Logistic Market Insights

Lucintel forecasts that domestic transportation management will remain the largest segment over the forecast period due to growing trade movement from the unloading docks to the warehouse, rising fuel surcharges, rising carrier rates, and an increase in cross-docking services.

Within this market, manufacturing will remain the largest segment due to rising preference for third-party logistics in this sector given to its lower costs for transportation, supply chain transparency, inventory control, and vendor management.

APAC is expected to witness highest growth over the forecast period due to expanding gateways and corridors for transregional trade in the region.
