Abstracts

Ancient grains are a combination of cereals and pseudo-cereals. These grains and pseudo-grains have hardly changed through selective breeding over the past few thousand years, while grains such as grains, corn, rice and modern wheat are products of thousands of years. Selective breeding. Although some nutritionists have disputed the health benefits of ancient grains, the grains on the market are usually more nutritious than modern grains.

This report elaborates the market size, market characteristics, and market growth of the Ancient Grains industry, and breaks down according to the type, application, and consumption area of Ancient Grains. The report also conducted a PESTEL analysis of the industry to study the main influencing factors and entry barriers of the industry.

In Chapter 3.4 of the report, the impact of the COVID-19 outbreak on the industry was fully assessed. Fully risk assessment and industry recommendations were made for Ancient Grains in a special period. This chapter also compares the markets of Pre COVID-19 and Post COVID-19.

In addition, chapters 8-12 consider the impact of COVID-19 on the regional economy.
