Abstracts

Pay TV refers to subscription-based television services, often provided by analog, digital cable and satellite, and is gradually being provided by digital terrestrial broadcasting.

Unlike other wired networks, pay TV is an a la carte service. For example, users can subscribe to the A channel only without having to subscribe to the B channel.

This report elaborates the market size, market characteristics, and market growth of the Pay TV Services industry, and breaks down according to the type, application, and consumption area of Pay TV Services. The report also conducted a PESTEL analysis of the industry to study the main influencing factors and entry barriers of the industry.

In Chapter 3.4 of the report, the impact of the COVID-19 outbreak on the industry was fully assessed. Fully risk assessment and industry recommendations were made for Pay TV Services in a special period. This chapter also compares the markets of Pre COVID-19 and Post COVID-19.

In addition, chapters 8-12 consider the impact of COVID-19 on the regional economy.
