Abstracts

Diamond is a diamond that has been honed. Diamond is a natural mineral and a rough stone. Simply put, diamonds are simple crystals of carbon formed in the deep high pressure and high temperature of the earth. Although human civilization has a history of thousands of years, people have discovered and initially understood diamonds for only a few hundred years, and the time to truly reveal the inner secrets of diamonds is shorter. Before that, it was only a mythical religious and fearful legend, and it was seen as a symbol of courage, power, status and honor. Today, diamonds are no longer mysterious, and they are not treasures that only the royal family can enjoy. It has become a popular gem that all people can own and wear. The culture of diamonds has a long history, and people regard it more as a symbol of love and loyalty.

Based on the Diamond Jewellery market development status, competitive landscape and development model in different regions of the world, this report is dedicated to providing niche markets, potential risks and comprehensive competitive strategy analysis in different fields. From the competitive advantages of different types of products and services, the development opportunities and consumption characteristics and structure analysis of the downstream application fields are all analyzed in detail. To Boost Growth during the epidemic era, this report analyzes in detail for the potential risks and opportunities which can be focused on.

In Chapter 2.4 of the report, we share our perspectives for the impact of COVID-19 from the long and short term.

In chapter 3.4, we provide the influence of the crisis on the industry chain, especially for marketing channels.
