Abstracts

Diamonds are the hardest substance known to humans and are made of crystalline carbon with unique light reflectivity. Since ancient Greece, diamonds and diamond jewelry have been traditional symbols of love. Ancient people believed that they were hardened dew, star debris or crystalline lightning. Today, gem-grade diamonds are used to make high-grade jewelry and engagement rings.

Based on the Diamond Jewellery market development status, competitive landscape and development model in different regions of the world, this report is dedicated to providing niche markets, potential risks and comprehensive competitive strategy analysis in different fields. From the competitive advantages of different types of products and services, the development opportunities and consumption characteristics and structure analysis of the downstream application fields are all analyzed in detail. To Boost Growth during the epidemic era, this report analyzes in detail for the potential risks and opportunities which can be focused on.

In Chapter 2.4 of the report, we share our perspectives for the impact of COVID-19 from the long and short term.

In chapter 3.4, we provide the influence of the crisis on the industry chain, especially for marketing channels.

In chapters 8-13, we update the timely industry economic revitalization plan of the country-wise government.
