Abstracts

The entertainment industry is made up of many companies that produce and moderate the forms of entertainment that are manufactured and distributed to the masses. The entertainment industry is formed by a variety of sub-groups that create and uphold the groundwork for the entertainment industry at large. These entertainment sub-industries are responsible for providing the general public with a variety of entertainment possibilities including live entertainment, musical entertainment, exhibition entertainment, mass media entertainment, and electronic entertainment. Live entertainment is comprised of the circus, comedy performances, sporting events, the performing arts, musical theater performances, and concerts. Examples of musical entertainment include orchestras and concert hall performances, as well as the composers, vocal artists, and musicians. Exhibition entertainment includes amusement parks, trade shows, and/or fairs. Mass media is made up of film, the internet, and broadcasting, amongst others. Electronic entertainment is mainly composed of video games.

Based on the Entertainment market development status, competitive landscape and development model in different regions of the world, this report is dedicated to providing niche markets, potential risks and comprehensive competitive strategy analysis in different fields. From the competitive advantages of different types of products and services, the development opportunities and consumption characteristics and structure analysis of the downstream application fields are all analyzed in detail. To Boost Growth during the epidemic era, this report analyzes in detail for the potential risks and opportunities which can be focused on.

In Chapter 2.4 of the report, we share our perspectives for the impact of COVID-19 from
