Abstracts

Film distribution is the process of making a movie available for viewing by an audience. This is normally the task of a professional film distributor, who would determine the marketing strategy for the film, the media by which a film is to be exhibited or made available for viewing, and who may set the release date and other matters. The film may be exhibited directly to the public either through a movie theater or television, or personal home viewing (including DVD, video-on-demand, download, television programs through broadcast syndication). For commercial projects, film distribution is usually accompanied by film promotion.

The Film Distribution market revenue was xx Million USD in 2016, grew to xx Million USD in 2020, and will reach xx Million USD in 2026, with a CAGR of xx during 2020-2026.
