Abstracts

Kosher foods are foods that meet the 'kashrut' regulations - the Jewish diet, and therefore must undergo special treatment. The food that can be consumed according to the 'halakha'-Jewish law is called Kosher, the Ashkenazi pronunciation from the Hebrew word 'kash?r', which means 'fit'.

Based on the Kosher Food market development status, competitive landscape and development model in different regions of the world, this report is dedicated to providing niche markets, potential risks and comprehensive competitive strategy analysis in different fields. From the competitive advantages of different types of products and services, the development opportunities and consumption characteristics and structure analysis of the downstream application fields are all analyzed in detail. To Boost Growth during the epidemic era, this report analyzes in detail for the potential risks and opportunities which can be focused on.

In Chapter 2.4 of the report, we share our perspectives for the impact of COVID-19 from the long and short term.

In chapter 3.4, we provide the influence of the crisis on the industry chain, especially for marketing channels.
