Abstracts

Kvass is a traditional Slavic and Baltic beverage commonly made from rye bread, which is known in many Eastern European countries and especially in Ukraine, Russia and Belarus as black bread. The colour of the bread used contributes to the colour of the resulting drink. Kvass is classified as a non-alcoholic drink by Russian and Polish standards, as the alcohol content from fermentation is typically low (0.5-1.0%). It may be flavoured with fruits such as strawberries and raisins, or with herbs such as mint.

Based on the Kvass market development status, competitive landscape and development model in different regions of the world, this report is dedicated to providing niche markets, potential risks and comprehensive competitive strategy analysis in different fields. From the competitive advantages of different types of products and services, the development opportunities and consumption characteristics and structure analysis of the downstream application fields are all analyzed in detail. To Boost Growth during the epidemic era, this report analyzes in detail for the potential risks and opportunities which can be focused on.

In Chapter 2.4 of the report, we share our perspectives for the impact of COVID-19 from the long and short term.
