Abstracts

Medical courier is a service that ensure safe and timely transfer of medical equipment, reports or organs and specimen between hospitals or between labs and hospitals. Given the criticality of what is being transferred, quick and safe transportation of the items is of paramount importance. Route optimization is extremely vital in medical couriers as time of essence. Samples can deteriorate and be unusable after a certain window of time has lapsed. With the success rate of organ transplants increasing rapidly, the need to be able to transport a donated organ to the receipient safely, securely and in time is extremely crucial. More often than not, the organ donor may not be in the same city limits as the receipient.

The Medical Courier market revenue was xx Million USD in 2016, grew to xx Million USD in 2020, and will reach xx Million USD in 2026, with a CAGR of xx during 2020-2026.
