Abstracts

Professional skin care refers to skin care products that are used and sold in a day spa, medical spa, doctor's office, or skin clinic. It also includes some lines developed by physicians (dermatologists and plastic surgeons) that are sold in doctor's offices. Some physician-founded lines are sold in retail channels (and deliberately marketed for retail customers).

Based on the Professional Skincare Products market development status, competitive landscape and development model in different regions of the world, this report is dedicated to providing niche markets, potential risks and comprehensive competitive strategy analysis in different fields. From the competitive advantages of different types of products and services, the development opportunities and consumption characteristics and structure analysis of the downstream application fields are all analyzed in detail. To Boost Growth during the epidemic era, this report analyzes in detail for the potential risks and opportunities which can be focused on.

In Chapter 2.4 of the report, we share our perspectives for the impact of COVID-19 from the long and short term.

In chapter 3.4, we provide the influence of the crisis on the industry chain, especially for marketing channels.
