Apparel Retail in the United States of America (USA) - Market Summary, Competitive Analysis and Forecast to 2025

SUMMARY

Apparel Retail in the United States industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: market share, market size (value and volume 2016-20, and forecast to 2025). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The apparel retail market includes baby clothing, toddler clothing and casual wear, essentials, formalwear, formalwear-occasion, and outerwear for men, women, boys and girls; excludes sports-specific clothing. All market data and forecasts are represented as a consumer expenditure in retailers which includes sales taxes (e.g. VAT) and figures presented are in nominal terms (i.e., without adjustment for inflation) and all currency conversions used in the creation of this report have been calculated using constant 2020 annual average exchange rates.

The US apparel retail market had total revenues of $269.9bn in 2020, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of -4.8% between 2016 and 2020.

The womenswear segment was the market's most lucrative in 2020, with total revenues of $125.6bn, equivalent to 46.6% of the market's total value.

GDP growth in the US plummeted to -3.5% in 2020, and the unemployment rate also increased sharply to 8.1%. Amid a period of economic uncertainty and job insecurity, consumers typically cut on spending on non-essential items such as apparel. This is likely to have contributed to the steep decline in market growth witnessed this year.
