City Profile Dublin; Comprehensive overview of the city, PEST analysis and analysis of key industries including technology, tourism and hospitality, construction and retail

Summary

“City Profile Dublin” provides historical and forecast data on key city level metrics along with analytical coverage of the latest political, economic, social, technological, infrastructural, legal and environmental issues affecting Dublin.

The report contains detailed tourism, retail, construction, technology and public infrastructure data and insight into economic, social, and industry trends.

Dublin is the most populous and capital city of Ireland and has a strong economic development prospects, which will be driven by the Dublin Regional Enterprise Plan 2024 that aims to bolster the resilience of Dublin's SMEs and stimulate economic growth. The nominal GDP of the area accounted for about 48.7% of the country's GDP in 2022

Scope

The service sector remains the key contributor to the area's economy

Dublin's tourism sector experienced a significant rebound in 2022, achieving more than 100% rise in Irish residents' trips in the Eastern and Midland region

In 2022, Dublin's construction sector, contributing 2.1% to the area's GVA, faced a slowdown to 4.0%, attributed to global industry challenges like supply chain disruptions, rising material costs, and potential labor shortages

Reasons to Buy
