KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Acquisition of NOL fueled growth in terms of container ship revenue

The container shipping segment offers services such as transportation costs and handling services, XXL cargo shipping services, reefer carrier services, logistics services, container fleet management services, river shipping services, inland solutions - intermodal services and transports, roll-on/toll-off service and SOLAS - verified gross mass management. The revenue of the container shipping segment increased to US$15,373.1 million in 2016 from US$15,241.7 million in 2015, indicating an increase of 0.9%, owing to the acquisition of NOL in 2016. NOL's contribution to the company's revenue was US$2,624.9 million, out of which US$2,479.8 million was contributed to this segment. The segment accounted for 93.6% of the company's total revenue in 2016.

Business growth in terms of new shipping lines helps to drive others segment revenue

CMA CGM's others segment revenue increased from US$804.5 million in 2015 to US$1,046.0 million in 2016, indicating an increase of 30.0%. The segment accounted for 6.4% of the company's overall revenue. Revenue is recognized when the services have been rendered or when the goods have been delivered. The increase is attributed to the growing business relating to new routes, such as the trans-pacific routes. The company's other activities include after delivery services, e-commerce, and services related tracking.

The company has witnessed a steady increase in revenues and profit margins

The company recorded a gradual increase in revenues, from US$3,400 million in the first quarter of 2016 to US$4,570 million in the last quarter of 2016. Revenue also increased from US$4,620 million in the first quarter of 2017 to US$5,550 million in the second quarter of 2017. The growth in quarterly revenue and net profit margin is attributed to the integration of APL (NOL acquisition), the launch of the OCEAN Alliance and industry dynamism. The net profit/loss of the company increased from US$100 million in first quarter of 2016 to US$45 million in fourth quarter of 2016. Similarly, net profit augmented from US$86 million in the first quarter 2017 to US$219 million the second quarter of 2017.
