The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The construction market is defined as the value of work put in place annual for both residential and non-residential construction.

The Taiwanese construction industry had total revenues of $51.2bn in 2019, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 0.5% between 2015 and 2019.

The non-residential segment was the industry's most lucrative in 2019, with total revenues of $35.5bn, equivalent to 69.4% of the industry's overall value.

Taiwan's Lutheran home price index increased 2.11% over 2018 and then 2.67% in 2019, its best performances since 2014. This was driven by the increased demand for property as GDP per capita increased and average wages rose.
