The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The construction market is defined as the value of work put in place annual for both residential and non-residential construction.

The US construction industry had total revenues of $1,581.5bn in 2019, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 2.3% between 2015 and 2019.

The construction industry is highly correlated with the construction material and house markets.

During the Trump presidency, federal tax cuts have increased most people's net incomes, which created an initial boom in demand for residential construction over the 2016-2017 period.
