Key Highlights

CTT Systems AB (CTT Systems) designs, develops, and manufactures humidity control systems for commercial aircraft. The company focuses on developing systems to eliminate and prevent condensation from being built up between the cabin and the outer skin of commercial aircraft. Its product portfolio consists of humidity control systems, including dehumidifiers and humidifiers, and anti-condensation systems. CTT Systems offers improved humidity level in the cabin and provides improved comfort, profitability, and air safety. It essentially serves commercial airliners and large private jets, including all VIP models and some large-cabin business jet models. CTT Systems is headquartered in Nyköping, Sweden
