SUMMARY

Employment Services in Japan industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: market size (value 2016-20, and forecast to 2025). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

For the purposes of this profile, the Employment Services market consists of temporary and contract staffing services. Temporary staffing is where agencies supply workers to clients on a temporary basis, whereby the workers remain employees of the agency. Permanent staffing is where agencies recruit workers on behalf of clients, with these workers going on to become employees of the client. The market value is the total turnover of agencies from the provision of these services. Services such as employee leasing and independent contracting are not included.

The Japanese employment services market had total revenues of $73.4bn in 2020, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 1.9% between 2016 and 2020.

Market consumption volume increased with a CAGR of 2.6% between 2016 and 2020, to reach a total of 1.3 million Average number of temporary agency employees in 2020.

The value of the Japanese employment services market declined by 5% in 2020 as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic which had a devastating impact on employment and business confidence. The employment services market is projected to bounce back in 2021 and follow a weak growth trajectory for the rest of the forecast period.
