Foodservice - Market Summary, Competitive Analysis and Forecast, 2016-2025 (Global Almanac)

SUMMARY

Global Foodservice industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: industry size (value and volume 2016-20, and forecast to 2025). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the industry.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Foodservice is defined as the value of all food and drink, including on-trade drinks not drunk with food, for immediate consumption on the premises or in designated eating areas shared with other foodservice operators, or in the case of takeaway transactions, freshly prepared food for immediate consumption. Foodservice is restricted to the sale of food and drink in specific foodservice channels defined below and excludes vending machines.

The food service industry is valued according to total sales of all food and drink (soft and alcoholic) in or through accommodation outlets; pubs, clubs, and bars; full service restaurants; quick service restaurants and fast food; and other.

The accommodation segment includes food and drinks sales in bed and breakfasts, guest houses, holiday parks, hostels, and hotels and motels.

The pub, club and bar segment includes food and drink sales at nightclubs, private member and social clubs, and pubs and bars.

The full service restaurants segment includes casual dining and fine dining.

The quick service restaurant & fast food segment includes coffee & tea shops, ice cream parlors, quick service restaurants and fast food.

The other segment includes food and drink sales in leisure venues, such as visitor attractions; mobile operators, such as vans and other mobile operators; retailers, such as bakeries, convenience stores, delicatessens, department stores, garden centers, service station forecourts, supermarkets and hypermarkets, and other retail sales.

Market volume is defined as the total number of transactions.

All market data and forecasts are represented in nominal terms (i.e., without adjustment for inflation) and all currency conversions used in the creation of this report have been calculated using constant 2020 annual average exchange rates.

Forecast figures presented in this report are calculated using crisis scenarios for the market. The length of the pandemic and restrictions introduced by various countries are still difficult to predict. Many governments had introduced the national lockdowns and temporarily banned sales of products that are deemed "non-essential". As the length of the pandemic and its impact on this market is not certain, the data used in this report has been modeled taking forecast impacts on national economics into consideration.

The global foodservice industry had total revenues of $2,211.2bn in 2020, representing a compound annual rate of change (CARC) of -7.1% between 2016 and 2020.

Industry transaction volumes declined with a CARC of -4.2% between 2016 and 2020, to reach a total of 452.7 billion transactions in 2020.

The US industry is the largest single country globally, accounting for 25.6% of the global industry's total value in 2020. The US industry is saturated and mature, which has prevented growth from rising above moderate levels. Many of the leading chains are concentrating on diversifying menus rather than increasing outlet numbers in the US.
