The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

Essential resource for top-line data and analysis covering the Brazil functional drinks market. Includes market size and segmentation data, textual and graphical analysis of market growth trends, leading companies and macroeconomic information.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The functional drinks market consists of the retail sale of sports drinks and energy drinks. Sports drinks are defined as drinks with performance-enhancing properties, described as 'isotonic', 'hypertonic' or 'hypotonic'. Energy drinks are defined as those with energy-enhancing properties - often carbonated and containing stimulants such as caffeine, taurine, guarana, glucuronolactone, and yerba mate, along with glucose syrup (corn syrup) and maltodextrin. The market is valued according to the retail selling price (RSP) and includes any applicable taxes. All currency conversions used in the creation of this report have been calculated using constant annual average 2017 exchange rates.

The Brazilian functional drinks market had total revenues of $980.0m in 2017, representing a compound annual rate of change (CARC) of -2.9% between 2013 and 2017.

Market consumption volume declined with a CARC of -2.3% between 2013 and 2017, to reach a total of 206.8 million liters in 2017.

Despite the fact that Brazil is one the largest soft drinks markets in the Americas region, economic challenges during the review period mostly affected the market growth.
