KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The online gambling industry comprises remote gaming activities by means of the internet, and mobile internet. Its segments include online sports betting, casino games, poker, bingo and social gaming, with the 'other' segment including gambling activities such as lotteries.

The global online gambling industry had total gross gaming win of $49,242.3m in 2017, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 7% between 2013 and 2017.

The European online gambling industry has the highest value globally, as a high internet penetration levels coupled with high income levels allow a greater number of consumers to engage with this industry. A culture which generally deems gambling to be acceptable as well helps in comparison to other regions or countries around the world with high income levels and internet penetration rates such as the Middle East or Japan.

The industry should continue to grow at a strong pace in the coming years as a number of countries and states within countries decide to legalize online gambling. Two major examples are Pennsylvania in the USA which legalized online gambling in the fourth quarter of 2017 as well as the Chinese island province of Hainan.
