The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The government spending sector is the total amount of public sector expenditure at any sort of level, including central government, local government etc. It is split into the following segments: defense, education, social protection, healthcare, and other.

The French government spending sector had total revenues of $625.5bn in 2020, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 4.5% between 2016 and 2020.

The social protection segment was the sector's most lucrative in 2020, with total revenues of $403.8bn, equivalent to 64.6% of the sector's overall value.

As is the case in many developed countries around the world, the French government has seized the opportunity to 'build back better' in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic, focusing on developing a green economy. This will be a key source of spending in the sector going forwards.
