KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The government spending sector is the total amount of public sector expenditure at any sort of level, including central government, local government etc. It is split into the following segments: defense, education, social protection, healthcare, and other.

The Italian Government Spending sector had total revenues of $956.6bn in 2019, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 0.6% between 2015 and 2019.

The social protection segment was the sector's most lucrative in 2019, with total revenues of $411.4bn, equivalent to 43% of the sector's overall value.

Italy's economy has fared badly in recent years and the government has struggled to increase spending. In 2019 the annual GDP growth rate was just 0.3%, which had a negative impact on government spending.
