The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The government spending sector is the total amount of public sector expenditure at any sort of level, including central government, local government etc. It is split into the following segments: defense, education, social protection, healthcare, and other.

The South African Government Spending sector had total revenues of $127.6bn in 2019, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 7.8% between 2015 and 2019.

The education segment was the sector's most lucrative in 2019, with total revenues of $26.3bn, equivalent to 20.6% of the sector's overall value.

South Africa spends more than any other African country on education relative to its GDP, yet this has not translated into success. South Africa often comes near the bottom in the math and science tables, and dropout rates are high.
