About

There has been moderate growth in the global gyms, health and fitness clubs market in recent years, with an expected revenue increase of 4.8% in 2017 over the previous year. The global gyms, health & fitness clubs market is expected to generate total revenues of $73,500.9m in 2017, representing a compound annual growth rate of 4.7% between 2013 and 2017. In comparison, the Asia-Pacific and US markets will grow with CAGRs of 6% and 3.8% respectively, over the same period, to reach respective values of $13,270.5m and $21,290.8m in 2017.

Countries with the most mature markets include the US, Canada, the UK and the Netherlands, are likely to have quite high penetration rates and easily accessible facilities. Going to the gym has become a major routine for some, and by posting their updates on social media, fitness clubs receive free advertising. The gym culture has only recently spread to parts of Asia-Pacific and Eastern Europe and many of the countries here are very quickly adopting the movement.

Low-budget gyms such as 24 Hour Fitness and Anytime Fitness have been particularly successful over the past years as they offer a stripped down version of the gym experience for a low price tag. This concept is beneficial for those on a low-income or those who would be put off by the premium price of a full-service health club.
