KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Hydro-Quebec (Hydro-Quebec or “the company”) is a state-owned company involved in the generation, transmission, and distribution of electricity. It generates most of its electricity from hydro sources, with low greenhouse gas emissions. It also sells power on wholesale markets in northeastern North America. The company also supports the development of electricity using other technologies such as biomass and wind energy and generates renewable energy by using hydro sources. It also designs, constructs, and renovates the generation and transmission facilities, primarily for Hydro-Quebec Production and Hydro-Quebec TransEnergie. The company distributes electricity to commercial, residential, institutional, and industrial customers. Hydro-Quebec has operations in the US and Canada. The company is headquartered in Montreal, Quebec, Canada
