The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

Key Highlights

Non-life insurance is typically defined as any insurance not determined to be life insurance. It includes automobile and homeowners' policies and provides payments depending on the loss from a particular financial event.

The Japanese non-life insurance market had total gross written premiums of $87.8 billion in 2022, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 1.3% between 2017 and 2022.

The motor segment accounted for the market's largest proportion in 2022, with total gross written premiums of $42.8 billion, equivalent to 48.8% of the market's overall value.

Japan is prone to natural disasters due to its topography and climate. This risk has increased over the past several years as a result of the ongoing global climate crisis, which has bolstered the demand for property insurance.
