The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The construction market is defined as the value of work put in place annually for both, residential and non-residential construction.

The Malaysian construction industry had total revenues of $28.5 billion in 2022, representing a negative compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 2.4% between 2017 and 2022.

The non-residential construction segment accounted for the industry's largest proportion in 2022, with total revenues of $21.2 billion, equivalent to 74.4% of the industry's overall value.

The Malaysian construction industry experienced sluggish growth in the past few years, owing to several factors, including, slow growth in the economy, a decrease in urbanization, a decrease in consumer spending, and a decline in civil engineering and non-residential construction.
