Metals & Mining in South Korea

SUMMARY

Metals & Mining in South Korea industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: market size (value and volume 2014-18, and forecast to 2023). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The metals & mining industry consists of the aluminum, iron & steel, precious metals & minerals, coal and base metal markets.

The South Korean metals & mining industry had total revenues of $67.5bn in 2018, representing a compound annual rate of change (CARC) of - 0.5% between 2014 and 2018.

Production volume increased with a CAGR of 0.1% between 2014 and 2018, to reach a total of 120.8 million metric ton in 2018.

While mining itself is not a major contributor to South Korea's economy, steel exports are a major driver for growth in this industry. Subsequently, the significant decline in 2015 led the market to contract overall. The decline was due to China overproducing steel which caused the price of steel to drop significantly. However, the rush to beat President Donald Trump's steel tariffs resulted in a boost in demand, which drove up the value of the market.
