SUMMARY

Publishing in South Korea industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: market share, market size (value and volume 2016-20, and forecast to 2025). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The publishing market consists of books, newspapers and magazines.

The South Korean publishing market had total revenues of $4.9bn in 2020, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of -2.3% between 2016 and 2020.

The books segment was the market's most lucrative in 2020, with total revenues of $2.5bn, equivalent to 51.1% of the market's overall value.

Despite the overall decline in print publishing, as has been similarly seen in other mature markets, South Korean educational content publishing is still booming as it accounts for over 60% of the book market due to South Korea's fiercely competitive education system.
