The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The real estate industry looks at renting and leasing residential properties. The industry is valued using the total revenues generated by landlords via the leasing and renting of private and council properties. Values are calculated using the average annual rent multiplied by the number of rented properties.

The Canadian real estate Industry had total revenues of $58.5bn in 2020, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 1.8% between 2016 and 2020.

Industry consumption volume increased with a CAGR of 0.6% between 2016 and 2020, to reach a total of 4.4 million units in 2020.

Rent prices were up by nearly 6% in 2019, as growth in demand for renting was boosted by growth in the employment of young people and the continued inflow of immigrants into the country, while the growth in the supply of new housing stock was limited.
