The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The real estate industry looks at renting and leasing residential properties. The industry is valued using the total revenues generated by landlords via the leasing and renting of private and council properties. Values are calculated using the average annual rent multiplied by the number of rented properties.

The Japanese real estate Industry had total revenues of $244.2bn in 2020, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 1.8% between 2016 and 2020.

Industry consumption volume increased with a CAGR of 1.3% between 2016 and 2020, to reach a total of 19.9 million units in 2020.

An aging population with low birth rates, as well as a culture of multiple generations living under the same roof, has kept demand stable overall, with growth mostly driven by immigration.
