SUMMARY

Real Estate in the United States industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: market size (value 2016-20, and forecast to 2025). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The real estate industry looks at renting and leasing residential properties. The industry is valued using the total revenues generated by landlords via the leasing and renting of private and council properties. Values are calculated using the average annual rent multiplied by the number of rented properties.

The US Real Estate Industry had total revenues of $819.6bn in 2020, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 2.0% between 2016 and 2020.

Industry consumption volumes declined with a compound annual rate of change (CARC) of -1.5% between 2016 and 2020, to reach a total of 43.3 million units in 2020.

Approximately 18% of renters in the US, or around 10 million people, were behind in their rent payments as of the beginning January 2021.
