The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The construction market is defined as the value of work put in place annually for both, residential and non-residential construction.

The South Korean construction industry had total revenues of $215.7 billion in 2022, representing a negative compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 1.2% between 2017 and 2022.

The non-residential construction segment accounted for the industry's largest proportion in 2022, with total revenues of $130.5 billion, equivalent to 60.5% of the industry's overall value.

The slow growth in 2022, can be attributed to macroeconomic factors including labor shortage and rising material costs, due to rising inflation in South Korea, which greatly impacted the industry growth.
