KEY HIGHLIGHTS

The Telecommunication Services market is defined as the total volume and value of both the Fixed Line Telecommunications market and the Wireless Telecommunications market. The market volume here is defined as the total number of fixed-line telephones and mobile subscribers.

The Taiwanese telecommunication services market had total revenues of $11.0bn in 2019, representing a compound annual rate of change (CARC) of -3.2% between 2015 and 2019.

The wireless segment was the market's most lucrative in 2019, with total revenues of $6.4bn, equivalent to 58.2% of the market's overall value.

The value of the market has been harmed by relatively low average pay.
Average salaries are insufficient to retain the plethora of university graduates the country generates each year, meaning the country is losing out on the economic performance this group would generate.
