MarketsandMarkets forecasts the global post-COVID-19 CCM market size to grow from USD 1.3 billion in 2021 to USD 2.2 billion by 2026, at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 11.2% during the forecast period. The major growth drivers for the market include increasing adoption of CCM solutions and services in various verticals such as IT and telecom, retail and eCommerce, healthcare, BFSI, travel and hospitality, government, utilities, and other verticals.

Among component, solution segment to hold a larger market size during the forecast period

The solution segment is expected to hold the largest market size during the forecast period. Enterprises deploy CCM solutions to provide customers highly connected personalized experiences across a wide range of websites, stores, call centers, mobile apps, social media, emails, virtual assistants, and other touchpoints. Customer queries would be resolved through automatic response processes and solutions wherein customers receive real-time feedback on their queries. Enterprises are aware of the importance of each interaction, which carries customers' perception of products or brands. Solutions such as omnichannel, ML, analytics, and workforce optimization are the backbone of modern customer services, which offer brands and products a competitive edge.

Among Verticals, IT and Telecom vertical to grow at the highest CAGR during the

forecast period

CCM market is segmented into IT and telecom, retail and eCommerce, BFSI, travel and hospitality, healthcare, government, utilities, and other verticals. CCM solutions help simplify IT infrastructure through a single, comprehensive solution for batch automation and interactive communications generation. In this way, companies can utilize data while creating documents. This enables them to create valuable content and contribute directly to objectives of their customer experience strategy. Therefore, telecommunications and IT companies have started investing in CCM solutions that would help them deliver high-quality services to their customers.

Asia Pacific (APAC) to grow at the highest CAGR during the forecast period

APAC countries are increasingly investing in CCM projects. The CCM market in APAC has been sub-segmented into China, Japan, India, and the rest of APAC. These countries act as a major driver for the growth of the market in the region. The increasing internet penetration and per user online consumption have led organizations to enhance their offerings in the CCM market. This rapid growth is because of its growing technology adoption rate. The growth of SMEs in the region has increased their spending on advanced technologies, such as AI, ML, and data analytics, to compete in the market and capture more opportunities. The implementation of CCM solutions has become more plausible for these businesses. Cloud computing is adopted on a large scale by organizations in the region's developed economies, such as Japan, ANZ, and Singapore. As the cloud technology is used as a repository of data for further analysis, its increased adoption is expected to drive the growth of the CCM market.
