“Sodium silicate market expected to register a CAGR of 4.4% during forecast period”

The sodium silicate market size is expected to grow from USD 8.91 billion in 2017 and reach USD 11.03 billion by 2022, at a CAGR of 4.4% between 2017 and 2022. Sodium silicate is a non-toxic, non-flammable, and non-explosive chemical manufactured by combining silicon dioxide and sodium carbonate or sodium hydroxide. It is a strong alkaline chemical having a high pH ranging from 10 to 13. The growing demand for detergents globally and rising demand for precipitated silica from the rubber & tire industry are the major drivers for the sodium silicate market during the forecast period. Hazardous effects of sodium silicate and use of substitutes in certain applications may act as restraints for the sodium silicate market.

“Liquid sodium silicate: fastest-growing form of sodium silicate”

Liquid sodium silicate is projected to witness the highest growth during the forecast period. The rising demand for this form in the detergents, precipitated silica, pulp & paper, and water treatment applications is expected to raise the consumption of this form of sodium silicate globally. Moreover, the rising demand for liquid detergents globally will make this form one of the most widely used sodium silicate form.

“Asia Pacific estimated to be the fastest-growing market for sodium silicate”

Asia Pacific is estimated to be the fastest-growing market for sodium silicate. This is associated with the increasing detergents production in the region. China is projected to be the fastest-growing market for sodium silicate in Asia Pacific, followed by India and Japan. The increasing production of precipitated silica, construction materials, pulp & paper, and water treatment chemicals is driving the sodium silicate market in this region.
