Abstracts

The CAD/CAM Systems and Consumables market will grow at a CAGR of 8.7% during the forecast period to reach USD 2138.9 million by 2022, driven by the rising geriatric and edentulous population, growing dental tourism for advanced dental solutions, increasing disposable incomes in the developing countries, growing dental clinics with advanced dental treatments, and increasing demand of cosmetic dentistry. The CAD/CAM technology in dentistry has provided several advantages, such as reduced treatment times and increased digitalization, leading to a greater accuracy. This has led to a significant increase in the CAD/CAM procedures in both dental laboratories and general practices. However, the high cost of dental solutions and limited reimbursement inhibits the growth of the market to a certain extent.

The CAD/CAM systems and consumables market is mainly segmented into systems by type (milling machines, furnaces, scanners, integrated systems, and software), by materials (zirconia, glass-ceramics, alumina-based ceramics, lithium disilicate, and others), by end-user (hospitals and clinics, dental laboratories, and academic institutes), and by geography (North America, Europe, Asia-Pacific, Latin America and Middle East & Africa).

Europe holds the major share in the CAD/CAM systems and consumables market, followed by North America and Asia-Pacific region. However, the Asia-Pacific region is expected to witness the fastest growth during the forecast period, mainly due to less stringent regulations, increasing number of hospitals and clinics, growing demand for dental procedures, growing dental tourism, and rising demand for better healthcare services from large pool of patient population.

The key players offering CAD/CAM systems and consumables in the global market are Institut Straumann AG, Dentsply Sirona Inc., Zimmer Biomet Holdings, Inc., Danaher Corporation, 3M Company, Planmeca OY, Align Technology Inc., Axsys Incorporated, Roland DGA Corporation, 3Shape A/S, Amann Girschbach AG, Zirkozahn GmbH, Ivoclar Vivadent AG, Vita Zahnfabrik, and Sagemax Bioceramics Inc. among others.
