Abstracts

Since the global commercial launch in 2019, 5G FWA (Fixed Wireless Access) services have experienced accelerated development due to COVID-19. This has led to an increase in shipments of CPE (Customer Premise Equipment), specifically indoor 5G FWA routers/gateways. This report provides an overview of the global FWA market, focuses on three global leading 5G FWA CPE suppliers: Nokia, Huawei, and ZTE by examining their 2022 product and market development strategies, and further analyzes the market size and development trends of 5G FWA CPE in 2023.
