Abstracts

Fueled by robust shipments of ICT equipment and consumer electronics and expansion of the IoT (Internet of Things) device market, approximately 3.2 billion Wi-Fi (Wireless-Fidelity) devices were shipped in 2021 alone, breaking the 3 billion unit mark. As IEEE standardization continues and the adoption of wireless technology in traditional and emerging vertical markets increases due to the rapid development of innovative services and equipment, Wi-Fi device shipments are expected to see steady growth in the next few years. This report provides an overview of the global Wi-Fi device industry, examines the adoption of standards across Wi-Fi devices, and gauges the industry outlook for 2022-2026.
