Abstracts

External blinds, primarily roller shutters, provide safety from natural disasters and burglary. Customers install roller shutters for the safety of their houses and commercial spaces from any physical damage. Fireproof roller shutters are also available in the market. They are gaining traction, as they offer fire resistance up to some hours. External blinds enable end users to choose from various product categories such as roller blinds, vertical blinds, panel blinds, corded blinds, pleated blinds, zip screens/blinds etc.
