Abstracts

The role of the release liner in the pressure-sensitive label industry is different than many other applications. For labels, the release liner must serve as a reliable carrier of the label laminate during printing, converting and application. Additionally, the liner must provide a hard surface for die-cutting the intricate shapes used in the prime label industry, without allowing the die to break through the silicone layer which can cause the adhesive to stick to the liner and disrupt the release performance during application.

This report contains market size and forecasts of Label Release Liner in global, including the following market information:

Global Label Release Liner Market Revenue, 2017-2022, 2023-2028, ($ millions)

Global Label Release Liner Market Sales, 2017-2022, 2023-2028, (Ton)

Global top five Label Release Liner companies in 2021 (%)

The global Label Release Liner market was valued at million in 2021 and is projected to reach US$ million by 2028, at a CAGR of % during the forecast period.
