Abstracts

Sports is considered to be any physical activity that demands a particular set of skills and teams to participate and compete against each other for the sole reason of entertainment. For these sports to take place there need to be dedicated venues which are called stadiums that should accommodate the participants and the fans. They can take place during any time of the day and lighting plays an important part in making sports success. Stadium lighting is the incorporation of artificial lighting in the stadiums to help mimic the natural lighting during the day to ensure the continuity of the sports.
