Abstracts

For thousand years, mullein leaves and its yellow flowers have been used as an herbal medicine in the European and North American region. Mullein leaf as a traditional medicine is used for treatment of asthma, coughs, tuberculosis, and other respiratory problems. It is recorded that in ancient Roman times mullein leaf ash was used as a hair wash to darken the hairs. Currently, mullein leaf is consumed widely in the form of herbal tea or as an ointments and oils. Mullein is a biennial plant belonging to the Scrophulariaceae family producing hairy mullein leaf. There are over 200 varieties of mullein, native to northern Africa, central and western Asia, and Europe which have spread across the globe.
